“Faith Community – Come Catch the Spirit!”

Faith Community believes to “Reach Out in Love” as a church that is:

- † Bible-Centered
  - † Prayer-Centered
  - † Worship-Centered
- Kid and Family Friendly
  - † Visitor-Friendly
  - † A Model of the Priesthood of Believers
  - † A Model of “First Fruits Giving”

The Celebration of Worship
2nd Weekend in Christmas and Youth Recognition

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.
After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and sermon with our Bibles open. FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our Communion, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Children of all ages may receive the sacrament! However, if parents prefer, small children may receive a grape given with the words, “Welcome to the Lord’s Table.”

2nd Weekend in Christmas And Youth Recognition

January 2, 2011

This weekend we have the incredible pleasure and honoring of hearing life journeys from just a few of our young adults. Being a young adult myself, I am always fascinated to hear different stories and to hear where each of us began our journeys. Something I think that is very important as we hear these stories, and as we look at our own stories, to understand who the Author is. Our Psalm today gives us a very blatant hint of who this is. The Psalm uses “He” & “His” 17 times in just 9 verses. This “He” is the Lord. It is God who writes the story, who invites us on this journey.

This is not just any story, but a perfectly written, crafted story that only Jesus can take and make right. It has always been neat to read the Bible in the areas that refers to God as the “author” of things. Hebrews 2:10 says.

“It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the author of their salvation perfect through suffering.”

I realize more and more, that even through the junk of my life, the ups and the downs, God has a greater story than anything I could have ever anticipated. You see, our salvation began with a story; a story that began in the garden, so long ago. It was there that we were all made perfect “in His likeness,” but through our desire for things other than God, we try and “author” our own stories. This has led to the torn and tattered pages, so many of us call “life.”

You see, I am learning that even where, in my past, I have written pages and pages worth of garbage in my life, God writes the “right” in my life! That is the beauty of His story and mine. He is our salvation, and the author that makes right the wrongs we have written. Brit Windel

Welcome, Guests!

We believe the Lord led you here. Please stop by our Welcome Center and sign our electronic guest book before you leave.

We welcome little children as we worship! In respect for others, you may bring your child(ren) to our well-equipped, staffed nursery during the service. Our speaker system provides excellent audio of the service in the Narthex and nursery. —Thank you.

Scripture Readings for next Sunday, January 9, 2011:
First Lesson: Isaiah 43:1-9
Psalm 29
Second Lesson: Acts 10:34-43
Holy Gospel: Matt 3:13-17

Card Shower for Lois Ward

Many of you know for quite a few years now Lois Ward has been leading our Library and Library committee. Lois has moving to Washington state to be near her daughters. Take a moment in the evening this week to send a card or a note of thanks to Lois. Her address is 4205 Gise St., Port Townsend, WA 98368. Phone: 360-385-6979. Any time you move it is difficult. Let's offer our thoughts to Lois and lift her up in prayer as well. A quiet lady who gave us a wonderful experience through books to entertain and explore our world. Thank you, Lois!
